

Code of Good Practice - Safeguarding Children, Young People and Vulnerable Adults

Introduction

ROYAL RICHMOND ARCHERY CLUB (“RRAC” or “the Club”) is affiliated to Archery GB (“AGB”). It is a mandatory requirement of affiliation for clubs to adopt the AGB Policy and Guidelines for Safeguarding Children, Young People, and Vulnerable Adults. There are a number of requirements stated by AGB including that clubs have a Code of Good Practice.

The following Code of Good Practice provides the Club’s statement of commitment to safeguarding principles, definitions, local rules, guidance, and procedures for dealing with concerns. Together, these ensure the mechanisms for compliance with the AGB Policy and clarify the expectations for the Club and its members.

A copy of this Code of Practice will be given to all new members (including juniors and their parents / guardians), and will be clearly displayed on the Club website. It will be reviewed annually, and members will be reminded through the Newsletter that a revised version has been uploaded to the website.

The AGB Policy for Safeguarding Children, Young People, and Vulnerable Adults is not repeated here but may be found at the following web address, as may the associated guidelines:

<https://tinyurl.com/agbguidance>

The Club’s commitment to the safety and welfare of children, young people, and vulnerable adults is always of paramount importance. This includes providing an environment where children, young people, and vulnerable adults can learn and participate in archery free from harassment and abuse. All those working with children, young people, and vulnerable adults have a responsibility to safeguard and promote their welfare. RRAC has adopted the AGB Policy for Safeguarding Children, Young People, and Vulnerable Adults to ensure peace of mind for both children and adults.

RRAC takes its responsibilities to children, young people, and vulnerable adults who participate in archery at all levels seriously. Communicating using Technology

When using mobile phones (or other devices) to communicate by voice, video or text (including texting, email and instant messaging), Club coaches and officers will:

- Seek contact through a parent / guardian, not the child / young person.
- Seek parental permission on every occasion that it is necessary to contact children / young people directly; the purpose for contact will be clearly identified and agreed.
- Copy any texts sent to children / young people to the Club's safeguarding officer and parent / guardian, at the same time, to ensure accountability and an audit trail.
- Texts will be used for communicating specific information only - such as reminding children or young people about upcoming events, which kit to bring or practice timing - and not for general conversation.
- If a young person misinterprets such communication and tries to engage a coach in conversation, the coach will:
 - End the conversation and stop replying.
 - Suggest discussing the subject further at the next practice or event.
 - If concerned about the child / young person, contact the Safeguarding Officer or appropriate agencies.

Photography

Children/young people and their parents/guardians must always be consulted about the use of their photograph, before it is taken. This ensures they're aware that photography is taking place and understand how the photo is going to be used. This should be recorded on a child's permission form.

For young people under 18, written parental consent is required before an image can be used for promotional purposes. This consent will be kept by the Safeguarding Officer.

RRAC has adopted the Archery GB PHOTOGRAPHING AND FILMING CHILDREN/YOUNG PEOPLE IN SPORT guidelines, a copy can be found at the following web address, in the club house, or from the club safeguarding officer:

<https://tinyurl.com/agbphotography>

Process:

- Written consent will be obtained for any photography or video - from both parents / guardians and the young person.
- Any images used for promotional purposes or on the club website / social media must be appropriate in terms of activity and clothing. This applies in all cases – including informal photos that may be taken during shoots or events.
- Young peoples' names should not be used in photograph captions, as this can put them at risk from people viewing the photos.
- A written statement of expectations of professional photographers or the press who are invited to an event will be given to them at the start of the event. This will make clear the Club's expectations of them in relation to safeguarding.
- Photographers will never be given unsupervised access to children / young people.
- Photography sessions outside the event or at a child's home should never take place.

Storing images securely

Images or video recordings of children must be kept securely. Hard copies of images should be kept safe, and electronic images should be in a protected folder with restricted access.

Avoid using any personal equipment to take photos and recordings of children and use only cameras or devices belonging to the club, if any photos or recordings are taken with personal equipment, they should be uploaded to the Club's laptop, and deleted from the device at the end of the session.

A copy of any Images or video recordings of Children, Young People, or Vulnerable Adults will be shown and or emailed to the parents or guardians.
